How to teach the kids surroundings

- *The important thing is not only teach kids by books.
To go outside and show them the real world.*
- Teach kids through the daily life

eg;

1. Growing vegetables or flowers, and observe them.
2. Feeding animals (eg. rabbits) to let children know the importance of life.

Let's see a example of Japanese school

How to teach the kids the importance of every seasons.

~Play with the seasons which we have here~

Purpose:

1. To make kids understand each season's importance and characteristics.

2. To let kids find something new by themselves
Let's see the examples Japanese elementary schools try to do for the first grade kids.

Why play:

Playing is the best and the most natural way for kids to remember something or learn something.

Play in the spring

go out and feel a wonderful day!!

Rain season has started! Summer is around the corner!

*Which one do you prefer?
Play with sand or water???*
